REPUBLICAN TICKET

FOR CONGRESS,

at the special election to be held October 14, 1913, in the First West Virginia district.

JULIAN G. HEARNE, of Ohio county.

An Evening Echo.

Every one is poorer in proportion as he has more wants and counts not what he has but wishes only what he has not.—MARNILIUS.

An unbecoming and unwarranted attack is being made by the Exponent on Councilman Thomas Boehm for personal reasons in connection with the fire department. Mr. Boehm is chairman of the councilmanic committee on fire department and he has ever given the department diligent attention. Mr. Boehm stands well in the community. He has the interests of the city at heart. He is a man of splendid intelligence, honest in conviction and practice, and all who know him in either official or business life deeply resent the insinuation that he is not capable and that he is acting as chairman of the fire committee for personal or selfish purposes. The Exponent owes the community an apology for assailing one of its best citizens in such an unjustifiable manner.

Hearne's Election.

Senator Goff's invasion of the First congressional district on behalf of Senator Hearne's candidacy clinches the chances of the Republican candidate for election. Republican and Progressive Republican leaders throughout the district are jubilant over the injection into the fight of the mighty force of the Goff personality and the tremendous power of his argumentative ability. Even the Democrats admit that his appearance in the district will be a severe blow to Neely's expectations. For nearly forty years Senator Goff has been the idol of West Virginia Republicans, and the magnetism of his appeal is as potent today as it was in those memorable campaigns previous to 1888, when the celebrated Harrison countian fired the breasts of First district voters as they were never fired before nor have been since.

Senator Goff opens fire in Wheeling tonight and Ohio county Republicans have completed arrangements to give him a reception such as has never been equalled in West Virginia politics. The greatest crowd ever to attend a political rally in Wheeling is expected to greet him with every nook and corner of the entire district represented. On Friday the distinguished Clarksburger appears at Fairmont. Saturday afternoon he will be in Weston and Saturday night he winds up at Clarksburg. Memorable orations are being planned for him on every

FOREIGN PRODUCERS ACCLAIM OUR NEW TARIFF BILL, WHICH NEGLECTS RECIPROCITY.

(New York American—Democratic)

Why these ringing huzzas throughout Europe over our new tariff bill, now in operation, with generally lowered rates and no adequate reciprocity provisions? What is it that "marks an epoch," as the London Chronicle rejoices, and prompts its staid editor to the rhapsody, "No more remarkable man (than President Wilson) has reigned in the White House since Abraham Lincoln?" They are mightily delighted about it in Europe, as the cabled special dispatches to The American yesterday and this morning plainly demonstrate. They are so mightily delighted that it looks suspicious. So hugely rejoiced that they must be thoroughly convinced that a very good thing has befallen THEM. And it has—a very good thing, indeed, for THEM, a new American tariff law that opens our markets to foreign producers, but does not open a single foreign market to our producers.

To the London Daily Express a year ago, William R. Hearst said:

"Mr. Wilson says that we have grown to such a point of production that we overflow our own markets and that we must extend our markets and open up foreign markets to our produce.

"This is quite true; but one reason that we fill and overflow our own markets is because legitimate protection has prevented the product of foreign manufacturers and foreign cheap labor from invading our markets and crowding our own manufacturers and our own laborers out of business.

"We cannot secure the markets of foreign nations merely by reducing our own tariff wall. We must reduce the tariff wall of foreign nations.

"If we sacrifice our protective policy we sacrifice our one opportunity to lower the tariff bars of foreign countries. IT IS ONLY BY RECIPROCITY THAT THE TARIFF BARS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES CAN BE LOWERED."

A new tariff law without adequate reciprocity provisions and one hundred million dollars' worth of foreign-made goods turned loose on this country at lower rates, or no rates at all, from bonded warehouses and waiting ships within a few hours of its signing!

A hundred million dollars worth already, from foreign factories, with foreign rents, foreign cheap wages and foreign standards of opportunity and civilization.

And in return not a single brick out of any foreign tariff wall, not a single foreign market an inch wider open to any product of any American manufacturer, of any American workman!

No wonder that in London, Paris, Berlin and all the other trade centers of Europe they are penning paeanes in honor of "the new epoch." No wonder that in the great German capital, as The American's dispatches tell us this morning, the merchants are already organizing to take advantage of our "new freedom," the freedom to sell more freely to the Americans, but not to buy more freely from the Americans.

We have made a present under this new tariff law, of freer trade to the foreign producer. He knows it and rejoices. But there is no gift to the American producer at all. Not only does this bill give him nothing, but it takes away from him that part of his own home market in which foreign-made products can undersell him by force of lower wages and cheaper conditions.

The neglect of the policy of RECIPROCITY—of give and take, of scientific FAIR trade, fair alike to the American and foreign producer and wage-earner—is the glaring feature of this tariff bill, which accounts for the "song of triumph" rising to its ecstatic climax on the OTHER side of the ocean.

appearance. Senator Hearne will probably accompany him on the trip.

With the campaign now coming rapidly to a close the fighting will be fast and furious from now on. The Republicans are still on the aggressive, a sign always indicative of strength and confidence. This is evidenced by the fact that enthusiastic district rallies are being held every night in nearly every county.

The Democrats are becoming desperate. Ten days ago they were so cock-sure of carrying off the election without a struggle that they considered it hardly worth while to get out and make a fight. During the last week, however, the tide has been turning powerfully toward Senator Hearne until his chances of winning out have become so encouraging that the opposition has been suddenly confronted with the realization that defeat is staring them in the face. The result has been the entire Democratic organization throughout the district is in a panic and where but a few days back the leaders were figuring majorities they are now trying to hit upon a plausible excuse for their failure.

Reports from every county in the district indicate that it is no longer a question of whether or not he will win but by what majority he will be returned a victor.

"We have the fight won, Senator Hearne is as good as in Congress today," was the statement issued this morning by Chairman Albert Snedeker at congressional headquarters. "They can not beat him with a wagon load of money." The last reference was made in regard to a report recently that certain Democratic interests have been frightened to the point where they intend to let loose a flood of money in Marion and Harrison counties.

Mayor H. L. Kirk, of Wheeling, chairman of the Ohio county committee stands pat on his estimate that Hearne will carry Ohio county by 15,000 to 20,000 votes. "We are going to give Hearne the biggest majority ever given a candidate in Ohio county," he optimistically forecasts.

Secretary C. C. Wright, of the Marshall county committee, in Wheeling yesterday, said Marshall county would pile up 600 majority for Hearne.

Brooke county leaders claim Hearne will win there by 400 or more, and will poll a heavy Democratic vote. Hancock county, too, gives promise of a majority far above the Republican normal.

Reports from Lewis county are highly encouraging. The high-handed action of a little coterie of disappointed Republican office seekers in attempting to demoralize the Republican organization through an effort to swing it to the Progressive nominee at the eleventh hour aroused such resentment that the scheme has been converted into a boomerang. Of the four men involved in the plot, one held office for something like eighteen years under Republican rule, two others for eight years and another received a trouncing in a recent primary. So palpable was their motive of revenge that the Republican organization, instead of being weakened, has been strengthened by their action to such an extent that Senator Hearne is now assured of a safe majority.

Marion and Wetzel counties are the only two of the eight in the district conceded to Neely and in both, particularly Marion, a big reduction in the Democratic vote is anticipated. Harrison will be close but all the indications favor Hearne's success.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS SAY

Prefer Hearne.

Mr. Laughlin has become an ardent "Progressive," and has accepted a nomination which was refused by other prominent men of Progressive sympathies, who saw the futility of placing a Progressive party ticket in the field, and who preferred the naming of a progressive Republican of the Hearne type. These men knew that any other course was a play into the hands of the common enemy, and they stood, therefore, aloof from a plan which, if not successful could to the common interests of the opposition to free-trade, was an act which placed a protective congressional seat in jeopardy.—Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

Splendid Man.

Senator Julian G. Hearne, the Republican nominee for congressman in the First district, is one of the cleanest and ablest men in the state. He is a Republican with progressive ideas. As a member of the State Senate, he made a fine record. All opponents of the Democracy should rally to his support.—Wetzel Republican.

Effective Protest.

On October 14 the voters of this district will have an opportunity to make their protest effective. A vote for Julian G. Hearne will mean that the men who have money in the mills and the men who draw from those mills a living, resent the attack upon their industry and propose to rally with their full strength to the party which has for fifty years successfully maintained the principle of protection to American manufacturers, and American labor.—Wheeling Intelligencer.

SEVEN DRUNKS.

There were seven drunks up before Mayor Cole this morning. None of them was able to pay a fine and they were all put to work making the police station look a bit tidy.

There is a price of $20,000 offered in France for the discovery of a cure for Asiatic cholera.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEY'S HURT

Stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder is troubling you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clogged. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's uric acid waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.
